

{Nancy Snipes Mosley}

Helps students develop critical thinking skills to prepare them for higher education, 21st century careers, and civic participation. Committed to voicing NC teachers' need for more time and resources.

Online Portfolio: nancysnipesmosley.weebly.com

DEGREES

Master of Education - Wake Forest University, 2002-2004
Master Teaching Fellows Program in Secondary Social Studies

Bachelor of Arts - University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, 1994-1998
With Distinction and Honors in Sociology and Journalism and Mass Communication

CERTIFICATIONS

State of North Carolina Standard Professional License, 2004
National Board Certification, 2009

SKILLS

Social Studies Education
21st Century Skills/4Cs
Common Core Literacy

Technology Integration
Student Learning Teams
Professional Development

Graphic Design and Photojournalism
Academic and Op-Ed writing
Social Science research

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Social Studies Teacher - Leesville Road High School, Raleigh, NC, 2004–Present
Teaches 11th and 12th grade students American History, Civics and Economics, and Sociology. Has increased leadership roles in the Social Studies Department and LRHS faculty over time. Nominated for Teacher of the Year 2017.

Develops, adapts, and shares instructional materials for Academic and Honors level Social Studies courses

- Created and maintains a website of instructional materials to share with students, parents, and colleagues (mosleysocialstudies.weebly.com)

Built an award-winning Model United Nations program with 35+ students, organizing 10 days of competition per year, 2010-present

- Revamped the program in 2013, adding an application process and recruiting from Honors and AP classes
- Coordinates student officers and parent volunteers to plan and prepare for conferences at Appalachian State University, Duke University, and UNC-Chapel Hill
- Organizes a student-led debate with AP World History students at the end of the school year
- A number of students win individual delegate awards at each conference and LRHS won the Outstanding Delegation Award at UNC-Chapel Hill, 2016

Represents the Social Studies Department on the School Improvement Team, 2015-present

- Key Process Manager on School Improvement Plan, 2015-2016
- Participates in analyzing school data and initiatives to improve the 4 year graduation rate

Led technology training as a member of the WCPSS Teacher Leader Corps, 2013-2016

- Participated in three years of intensive professional development workshops on Discovery Ed, Literacy, and Technology Integration
- Delivered in-service training sessions to teachers with the other LRHS members of the Teacher Leader Corps
- Implemented technology and literacy skills in lessons and reflected on the experience in a TLC digital portfolio

Mentored two student teachers as a cooperating teacher for NC State University, 2013-2015

- Guided interns in planning, assessment, and reflection while teaching American History II
- Worked with Dr. Drinda Bengé at NCSU to give interns support

Acted as a Student Support Team Case Manager, 2007-2012

- Facilitated the process of identifying academic interventions for students with their families and teachers
- Helped create forms and materials to assist Case Managers and teachers in the SST process

Performed a variety of additional duties outside of the classroom

- Faculty Council member for National Honors Society, 2015-2016
- Learning Rounds team, 2015-2016
- American History II PLT Leader, 2014-2015
- Led professional development sessions on Clickers and Edmodo, 2011
- Advisor for Students Against Violence Everywhere, 2006-2009
- Redesigned LRHS website graphics and layout, 2005

ASSOCIATIONS

Board Member and Writer - Red4EdNC, 2016-present

Advocates for public schools and teachers through writing articles, attending protests, and assisting with petition drives.

- Designed new apparel to promote Red4Ed and public education in NC, 2017
- “The Real Problem with Teaching in NC” was shared 25.4K times after being picked up by EdNC.org (1/7/16), led to a meeting with a member of the NC House of Representatives who wanted teacher input on an education bill

Leesville Road Elementary School PTSA, 2015-present

Leesville Road High School PTSA, 2005-present

North Carolina Association of Educators, 2005-present

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Publications Coordinator and Area III Instructor - NC Governor’s School West, Winston-Salem, NC, 2001-2004

Coordinated the student newspaper and yearbook for a summer program for academically gifted high school students.

- Coached students on writing, layout, and photography
- Assisted with photography and editing
- Revamped publications office and computer systems
- Led an Area III seminar class that focused on getting students to discuss personal and social issues

Teacher Assistant and Substitute Teacher - Chapel Hill-Carrboro City Schools, Chapel Hill, NC, 2001-2003

Supported teachers and staff in public elementary, middle, and high schools in Chapel Hill

- Assisted the teacher and students in a third grade class at Estes Hills Elementary School
- Ran reading groups for low level students, worked one-on-one with LEP students, taught students technology skills in the computer lab
- Substituted long-term in the In School Suspension room at Smith Middle School

Teaching Assistant - Sociology Department, UNC-Chapel Hill, 2000-2001

Worked part time as a T.A. for Dr. Christopher Smith while in graduate school

- Held office hours and gave students assistance with planning essays
- Graded papers for two undergraduate Sociology courses

Graphic Designer - Publications Department, Trans World Radio, 1998-2000

Created layouts for promotional materials for a non-profit organization

- Designed brochures, newsletters, and mailers
- Worked with a team to help publish a monthly magazine